When Should Adjustments Be Used?

FAQs · https://atsfleetmanagement.com/docs/when-should-adjustments-be-used/

Overview

Adjustments should be used whenever reported information does not accurately reflect actual fleet activity.

Common Situations

- ELD malfunction
- Driver failed to log mileage
- Missing fuel receipt discovered
- Incorrect state allocation
- GPS outage
- Data import errors

Best Practice

Make adjustments as soon as discrepancies are identified and maintain supporting documentation.